

REFERENCES

"Bringing Shepherd Shakespeare in to work with our students was an amazing experience! Their two person A Midsummer Night's Dream was both beautiful and hilarious. Shepherd Shakespeare makes Shakespeare so accessible. The students were completely engaged the whole time and were so inspired by the post show talk back. We can't wait to bring them back again this year!"

Sarah Provencal

Theatre Teacher, Northwest School of the Arts

"Shepherd Shakespeare was truly the hit of the summer at our library! Their performance had everything to entertain and engage families and children of all ages. They made Shakespeare so accessible and exciting for the kids! Parents raved about the program. We can't wait to have them back!"

Samantha Martin

Head of Children's Services at Randolph County Public Library

"All I've got to say is wow! What a great introduction to Shakespeare for young people. I loved it. I appreciate you and Chester and hope we'll be able to bring Shepherd Shakespeare Co. back to Montgomery County again."

David Atkins

Director of Montgomery County Public Libraries

"I just wanted to reach out and tell you how AMAZING the program was last week. The show was so good. Chester was engaging and both the kids and adults thought it was hilarious. And he really went above and beyond with the workshop afterward."

Rachel Bryant

Children's Specialist, Camden County Public Libraries

"Getting kids to laugh riotously with a Shakespeare story? Check.
Improvise comedy and kid participation? Check.
Fairy fox puppets? Check.

Innumerable characters with different voices and costumes played by one person? Check.

Getting kids to ask about checking out books by or about William Shakespeare after the show? CHECK!

We had SO MUCH FUN with Shepherd Shakespeare Company!"

Brenda Hornsby Heindl

Director/Librarian, Liberty Public Library

shepherdshakespeare.com